Indian Artifact Auction: Dave Summers Collection, Part 2

September 17, 2022
9:00am START TIME!
8:00am Preview

We are pleased to offer the second part of the Dave Summers artifact collection of Bradford, New York. He has collected and sold Native American Artifacts for 33 years, specializing in New York State material. Many items of this important collection have been illustrated and written about in magazines and books. Artifacts are from personal finds, important archaeologists, estates, and seasoned collectors. Dave collected heavily from the northeast but also had an impressive collection of artifacts from across the country. Included is a large selection of rare Iroquoian artifacts, beads, bone combs, pipes, quality stone tools, birdstone, axes, celts, selection of pipes, pendants, bannerstones, large frames of arrowheads, Pre-columbian artifacts and large group offerings. Dave is now 79 years young and believes it is time for others to enjoy and learn from his lifelong collection.

There will be in-person bidding as well as live online bidding through Proxibid, absentee and phone bidding.
